

Luxury Cruise in the Marlborough Sounds - Chance Bay, Pelorus Sound

Experience a corner of New Zealand that not many tourists get to see, where the lush native bush, and abundant birdsong meet pristine waters. The Helmsman team will take you on an unforgettable trip through the secluded Pelorus Sound.

- See Havelock and its marina, tucked in to valleys of the Marlborough Sounds
- Take in some of the most beautiful views in New Zealand
- Enjoy the hospitality onboard the lovely Nirvana, a Maritimo-60 luxury vessel designed for small groups of up to 25 people.
- Learn about the local area from our chatty and knowledgeable crew
- Get up close to New Zealand's native bush, and listen out for bell birds and other natives. Lunch on board the very romantic, secluded Chance Bay.

Itinerary – The Romantic Chance Bay (no Walk)

- 10:00am Board Nirvana, where the crew will welcome you and serve a light morning tea
- 10:30am Depart Havelock Marina for Chance Bay. Cruise past Putanui Point, where three Sounds adjoin: Pelorus Sound, Kenepuru Sound, and Mahau Sound.
- 12:00pm Arrive Chance Bay. This Bay is remote and is one of the most scenic spots in the Marlborough Sounds. Rich green native bush comes right down to meet the gentle, sheltered blue waters.

Those who wish can go in our rib (small boat) up a stream through the bush, and see a 1500 year old native Rimu.

- 1:00pm Lunch will be served with a complimentary glass of local wine. Enjoy the secluded, romantic surroundings and just relax!
- 2:45pm Cruise back to Havelock Marina
- 3:30pm Disembark Nirvana at Havelock Marina

Note that transport to and from Havelock can be arranged for you.

Times and Tides

Please note times are approximate. Depending on tides we may use a water taxi to get out of the Marina through the Havelock Channel.

Contact / Booking Details

Philip Crothall
Tel NZ (mobile) +64 21 554 449
Email luxury@thehelmsman.co.nz

www.thehelmsman.co.nz